Background and Identity

The Asia Development Alliance (ADA) is an international network of national or sub-national multi-sectoral NGO/CSO platforms or umbrellas in Asia engaged in development issues in the context of the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, in particular the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

ADA was founded in Bangkok on in February 2013 as a joint regional platform of members of the International Forum of National NGO Platforms (IFP) and CIVICUS Affinity Group of National Associations (AGNA) in Asia for a collaboration of other CSO networks such as the Asian Democracy Network(ADN), Global Call to Action against Poverty (GCAP), Good Neighbors International, etc.

Vision

ADA is committed to building a just, inclusive, equitable and peaceful community of sustainable societies in Asia and beyond where every citizen and people can enjoy all human rights and democratic freedoms.

Mission

Through effective communication, coordination, and cooperation, ADA works to promote and advance justice, equality and peace at all levels of society in the development process in Asia, in particular in the people-centered implementation of the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Goal

ADA aims to enhance the effectiveness and impact of civic engagement and advocacy in implementing the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) at the national and international levels.

Collaborating Partners

ADA works in partnership with many international CSOs as member or partner, which include:

Governance Structure

ADA Annual Conference usually takes place once a year in January or February to assess the results of yearly activities and make strategic plans.

ADA Steering Committee (SC) is responsible for providing collective leadership and direction on behalf of all members. It is composed of 6 member organizations, 2 from each sub-region, namely South Asia, Southeast Asia and Northeast Asia with a mandate of two years.

Coordination Committee (Co-Co) is composed of 3 Co-conveners among the 6 SC members. The Co-Co is responsible for facilitation and coordination of the decisions-making and implementation of the decisions on behalf of the SC.

ADA Working Groups

The Working Group(WG) is composed of ADA members and regional CSOs that have thematic expertise and led by two Co-Chairs. Some Working Groups are in the process of being formed.

- WG on G20 Summit (including G7 Summit, BRICS (Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa) and MIKTA (Mexico, Indonesia, Korea (South), Turkey and Australia))
- WG on SDG 17 (Means of Implementation and Global Partnership)
- WG on SDG 16 (Transparency, Governance, Peace, Human Rights and Democracy)
- WG on Inequalities (SDG 10)
- WG on Global Civic Education (SDG Target 4.7)

The GALAA

Glo-cal (Global and Local) Advocacy Leadership in Asia (GALA) Academy is an advocacy training program that is a joint initiative with the Asia Democracy Network(ADN) and Asian Forum for Human Rights and Development (FORUM-ASIA) to strengthen cooperation and mutual mainstreaming among development, democracy and human rights movement in the context of implementation of UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, in particular Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). It started in 2013 and usually takes place in Bangkok for one week in August every year.
